

A FUN flea market for amateur radio and electronics hobbyists...
Get together, sell excess equipment, see friends, buy gear and parts you need, meet folks you've met on the air, even have a picnic if you like.

The Kauai Hamfest will be held at Nukolii Beach Park
Saturday, January 11, 2025 10 AM – 2 PM
FREE admission for all!

An event of the Kauai Amateur Radio Club

Those who want to sell ham radio related items can do so from the tailgate of their vehicle or a blanket/table on the grass. Haggling, bargaining, or swapping is the norm at a flea market. At a flea market, items are offered as-is, no refunds, unless other arrangements are made.

Tables and chairs must be brought from home if desired – none provided on site.
